

Raiders Hockey Club Awards Criteria

Best Offensive Player Criteria (Go Auto Kentwood Ford)

The Best Offensive Player is the player who exhibited excellent offensive ability during the season and playoffs.

Criteria for this award are goal scoring, assisting others and being “clutch” in tight game situations.

Best Defensive/Goalie Player Criteria (St. Albert Source for Sports)

The Best Defensive Player is the player who illustrates the most successful defensive play throughout the season and playoffs.

Players nominated for this award often stay under the radar during games until they are called upon to make a game saving stop or force a critical turn over or integral player in penalty kill situations.

Raider Award (St Albert Sports Academy)

(EACH PLAYER AND COACH SHOULD HAVE 1 VOTE TO DETERMINE TEAM CHOICE BASED ON BELOW)

Player who showed on and off the ice in a positive way (Respect, Attitude, Integrity, Determination, Excellence, Responsibility)

Players nominated for this award typically illustrate the following

- Leads by their actions rather than always words,
- Looks out for their fellow team members on and off the ice and has their back
- Picks you up when you're down and encourages you to keep striving for you goals rather than giving up the next time around
- Always analyzing what goes on in the games, as well as cheering or encouraging teammates the whole time
- If on the bench, they are the one standing and cheering every time a teammate makes a good play
- Gives respect to teammates, as well as always having an open mind to the opinions and suggestions from fellow teammates
- Is DEDICATED to both the team and the coaches
- Takes responsibility for the way their team performs whether good or bad
- Has an optimistic outlook on game results, sometimes we win, sometimes we lose, but always remembers to acknowledge things that will help the team be better next time around
- Be able to balance schoolwork with games, practices, teammates and still able to make time for others such as friends and family.

NOTE: The names of the award recipient must be submitted to the Raiders Hockey Office by March 17, 2017.
